

4.8 million
All Time Downloads

40k
Monthly Listeners

Launched in 2014 • Over 650 Episodes

Hear From Our Listeners

This has brought much healing to my life and taught me tools to pass on to those around me. Very grateful.

The insights and wisdom you give in your talks brings so much light and clarity to the questions I have been asking for so long but didn't have the language to articulate. I find myself feeling fresh energy to dive into the engagement of my own story, and I am eager to unlock the healing and peace that can be found in the journey.

I appreciate the podcast as a "bite sized" resource – helpful for new ideas, new voices, new resources!

About the Podcast

For over a decade, the Allender Center Podcast has offered honest, thoughtful conversations about the deep work of healing and transformation. Hosted by Dr. Dan Allender and Rachael Clinton Chen, this ongoing podcast explores the complexities of trauma, abuse recovery, story, relationships, and spiritual formation.

Through questions submitted by listeners, stories, interviews, and conversations, we engage the deep places of heartache and hope that are rarely addressed so candidly in our culture today.

Join the Allender Center Podcast to uncover meaningful perspectives and support for your path to healing and growth.

Some of the Voices We've Been Honored to Host

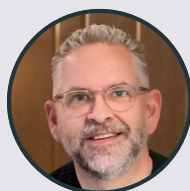

Aundi Kolber

Curt Thompson, MD

John Eldredge

Chuck DeGroat

Dr. Steve & Lisa Call

Curtis Chang

Cole Arthur Riley

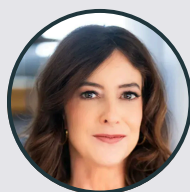

Matthias Roberts

Ian Morgan Cron

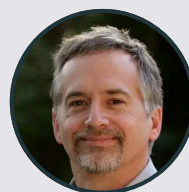

Adam Young, LCSW

Dr. Alison Cook

James A. White

Dr. Tremper Longman, III

John Kasich

Allender Center
AT THE SEATTLE SCHOOL

Join the conversation.

Stream each episode, plus get transcripts and show notes, at theallendercenter.org/podcast